This bill reflects BPU-approved changes in the Supply and Delivery portions of your electric bill, effective on and after April 1, 2024. The decrease in the Supply portion of your bill is due to changes in the Transmission Charge. The increase in the Delivery portion of your bill is due to changes in the Societal Benefits Charge, offset by a decrease in the Solar Pilot Recovery Charge. As a result of these changes, a typical residential customer who receives electric Supply from PSE&G and uses 577 kilowatt-hours in an average month, will see no change in their bill. Tariff information may also be found by visiting pseg.com.

This bill reflects BPU-approved changes in the Delivery portion of your gas bill, effective on and after April 1, 2024. The increase in the Delivery portion of your bill is due to changes in the Societal Benefits Charge. As a result of these changes, a typical residential customer who receives gas Supply from PSE&G and uses 87 therms in an average month, will see an average monthly increase of $1.06, or approximately 1.12%. Tariff information can be found at pseg.com.

If you are struggling to pay your bill, help is available! You can apply for the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and the Universal Service Fund (USF) at the same time with one application. ### How much gas are you using?

Visit MyAccount for more details regarding your energy usage.

Explaining gas charges

We measure the volume of gas you use in cubic feet (CCF) and then convert it to therms.

If you used a standard gas clothes dryer, it would take about 6 hours to equal 1 therm of energy.

About the balancing charge

The balancing charge includes pipeline, storage and other costs associated with seasonal peaks in usage. It applies from October to May.

Price to compare

If you want to consider getting your gas supply from another supplier, you can compare their price with ours. This month, your cost for gas supply is $169.04 (or an average of 0.39750454 per therm). This price to compare varies from month to month, depending on your usage.
